2022

WELCOME TO THE 2022 UMBRA CATALOG.

Despite the hurdles caused by the pandemic over the past two years, I am proud that Umbra has been able to bring so many new original products to our consumers. I am excited to share all of our new designs with you in our 2022 Umbra catalog.

There are some commitments that Umbra will always deliver on, such as designing high quality, innovative and versitile products that look terrific and offer great value. The other is sustainability.

Umbra believes that the biggest threat to humanity and the planet is the damage we are doing to our environment. We realize that making consumer products that require energy and materials to produce, package and deliver contributes to the problem. Our commitment is to lessen this damage by taking steps to reduce usage of materials harmful to the environment and to deliver quality products that last. We have initiated our Design for the Planet™ pledge for our catalog of products and company as a whole.

Our approach to sustainability starts with our designs. By ensuring that our products are of a high quality and that our designs are timeless, we can ensure they do not end up in landfill. We're also reducing unnecessary packaging, using more biodegradable & recycled materials, as well as reducing harmful finishes such as electroplating in our curtain rods.

The good news is that increased availability of environmentally friendly materials has allowed us to reduce our carbon footprint without compromising the products you've loved for over 42 years.

We're honored that you have welcomed our products into your home. Thank you for your continued interest in Umbra.

All the best to you in 2022!
